

Rebootizer

The Detox MixPak

REBOOTIZER® is a alcohol-free digestive drink made of 100 % natural plant and fruit extracts that helps revive your body by speeding up the natural detoxification process inside*.

Consumed at the end of your party nights, REBOOTIZER® helps your body to recover faster from the stress of the night, and you'll be in better shape the day after. It will ensure your attendance to all commitments the next morning!

Not a big drinker? Rebootizer isn't only for partiers...

Consume a pouch of REBOOTIZER® the way you would with a good herbal tea, or a vegetable juice to fully replenish with essential components your body needs to facilitate digestion and recovery from the stress of nowadays.

A Natural support for your body, with 100% natural plants and fruits extracts*.

Every one of the REBOOTIZER® plant components is known for its effectiveness in supporting the digestive system: liquorices extract, dandelion extract, lemon balm extract, artichoke extract (in bloom), lemon extract, bilberry extract. No added coloring agents.

Many of the ingredients are high in antioxidants for which studies have shown that they can play a role in reducing the cell-damage of free radical.

The packaging is eco-friendly.

One dose of Rebootizer comes in a 66gr MixPac rather than a bottle or can. This patented packaging has been designed to carry a minimum space and weight reducing shipping costs for our clients, and greatly reducing the shipping factors which release harmful CO2 emissions into the atmosphere.
